Ladies Retreat

January 26-28, 2018

Working through Ephesians and 1 Peter

We are excited to announce that this week August 14-19 we will be beginning our renovations to the Children's, Youth, and Food Bank areas of the building. Classes will meet in their normal places this Sunday (8/13) but will be meeting in their new (but still in progress) classrooms starting next Sunday, 8/20. We believe that these renovations will enhance all three ministries involved by giving each their own space to thrive. Our goal is to have the main construction portion of the renovation done this week so as to not disrupt our Sunday class programming. We will need help Saturday, 8/19 from 10-2 (pizza lunch will be provided) to get these areas ready for Sunday bible classes. Questions? Please see Deric, Brandyn or Carie. This work will take time so please pardon our dust as we are working hard to get this exciting project completed.

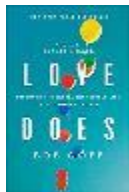

Youth Retreat is scheduled!

We will be going to Camp Bandina November 10-12. Mark your calendars and we will get more details out soon including price, times and how to sign up. If you are interested in being a sponsor, please let Brandyn know.

Sunday morning bible class

We have started a new series, the book "Love Does" by Bob Goff. This series will have an emphasis throughout on God's overwhelming love for us and the implications of putting love into action in this broken world. We hope that you will be there to participate each Sunday morning at 9:45!

Devos

We are beginning to schedule our middle school and high school devotionals for this Fall. Our devotionals consists of a meal (most commonly pizza), a 10-15 minute devotional time and then a lot of fellowship time (swimming, playing games, watching movies, etc.). If you would be interested in hosting a devotional, please let Brandy know.
