Sunday morning bible class

We have started a new series, the book "Love Does" by Bob Goff. This series will have an emphasis throughout on God's overwhelming love for us and the implications of putting love into action in this broken world. We hope that you will be there to participate each Sunday morning at 9:45!

We are beginning to schedule our middle school and high school devotionals for this Fall. Our devotionals consists of a meal (most commonly pizza), a 10-15 minute devotional time and then a lot of fellowship time (swimming, playing games, watching movies, etc.). If you would be interested in hosting a devotional, please let Brandyn know.

Change drive for Magi boxes (Bring all your change to help support this mission work!)

Thank you God for your gifts to us; help us be your gift to the world!!

Our new plan for adult spiritual formation begins Sunday, September 10th! Find out more on the handouts in all three lobbies, at a combined R&B Group "class" in the auditorium next Sunday, September 3rd at 9:45, or by speaking to Chase Carver, Sandra Fortenberry, Fred Weaver, John Flint or Marvin Bryant.

Make Your Voice Heard!!

In our ongoing efforts to build the church at NorthWest with wisdom, quality, and care, we need and want your input! We have partnered with Abilene Christian University to conduct an anonymous survey so that we can know your thoughts about the congregation. Handouts with Background Information about this survey tool are available in the lobbies if you want to know more.

Each individual member of the NorthWest family, High School and up, will be encouraged to complete the survey. We want your open, honest feedback, and it will be easier for you to share this since the survey is anonymous. The survey will be "filled out" online between September 10-26, and we will set up an attended computer area in the building on the Sundays to help anyone who needs assistance completing it. A consultant from ACU will meet with the leadership in October to share the results of the survey and be a conversation partner with us to help us identify some areas and directions for strengthening the congregation. A summary of the results and plans will be presented to the church by the leadership.

Please make your voice heard and help us identify ways we can strengthen the church community at NorthWest!

The Elders and Ministers
